

Good Morning! I am _____, and these are your Morning Announcements for Wednesday, February 21, 2018

Now in School Business:

Attention seniors: A representative from Buckeye Career Center Adult Education will be here at 9am on Mon., Feb. 26th to discuss adult education options and scholarships. Please sign up in the office by Fri., Feb. 23rd.

Don't forget to turn in your submissions for this year's edition of Tornado Alley, the Teen Literary Magazine of DHS and Dover Public Library. They're looking for art, poetry, creative nonfiction, and fiction submissions. Forms are available online, at the library, and in the DHS library. The submission deadline is Feb. 28th! Don't miss this opportunity to have your work published!

Tomorrow at 6:30pm, pro skateboarder and writer Doug Brown will be visiting Dover Public Library to talk about his journey from trouble-making teenager to motivational speaker. A book signing will follow this free event, open to all ages. Call the library at 330-343-6123 to register or for more information.

Attention seniors: Buy your Cedar Point ticket now and avoid being left behind. Tickets are $50, which includes your admission and all-day drink pass. See Mr. D'Egidio for your ticket.

Sign up for Health II – Introduction to Medical Professions (formerly called Introduction to Athletic Training). You will learn human anatomy, how to assess and prevent injuries, taping skills, and basic first aid and CPR. Completed applications are due TODAY, and then you will be notified and you will have to get Mrs. Zobel's signature before submitting your schedule for next year. Please see Mrs. Zobel with questions.

Attention freshmen, sophomores, and juniors: If you enjoy doing community service and giving back, you should take the new Teen Leadership Corp class! Come to room 133 to get an application from Mr. Morris. The deadline for completed applications has been extended until today at 3pm.

Attention students: Applications to work at Tuscora Park are now available in the office.

This is a reminder to students who are applying for membership in to National Honor Society: All forms are due on Feb. 23rd before 2pm. No late forms will be accepted.

Attention students: An ACT Prep session is being offered from 9am-noon this Sat., Feb. 24th. Please see Mr. Morris for information or call 330-866-9371, ext. 3120 to register.

Now in Clubs & Activities:

Any students interested in helping backstage with The Addams Family should plan to attend a meeting this Friday during clubs & activities in room 133. See Mr. Morris with questions.

And in Sports:

Anyone interested in trying out for DHS cheer or dance for the 2018-2019 school year should attend a mandatory tryout meeting tomorrow in the cafeteria. Cheer is at 6:30pm and dance is at 7:15pm. Parents are welcome to attend, but their attendance is not required.

Any students planning to join the track team this spring need to turn in their blue information form to Coach Smith in room 315 by this Friday, Feb. 23rd. Athletes must have updated physicals in order to participate in conditioning workouts. We will have conditioning days at Crater Stadium from 3-4:30pm on Tues., Feb. 27th, Thurs., Mar. 1st and Fri., Mar. 2nd. Make sure you can receive the Remind 101 messages. Please see Coach Smith if you have questions or need track forms.

These have been your morning announcements for Wednesday, February 21, 2018. Have a great day!
