

Good Morning! I am _____, and these are your Morning Announcements for Thursday, February 22, 2018

Now in School Business:

Attention seniors: A representative from Buckeye Career Center Adult Education will be here at 9am on Mon., Feb. 26th to discuss adult education options and scholarships. Please sign up in the office by tomorrow.

Don't forget to turn in your submissions for this year's edition of Tornado Alley, the Teen Literary Magazine of DHS and Dover Public Library. They're looking for art, poetry, creative nonfiction, and fiction submissions. Forms are available online, at the library, and in the DHS library. The submission deadline is Feb. 28th! Don't miss this opportunity to have your work published!

Today at 6:30pm, pro skateboarder and writer Doug Brown will be visiting Dover Public Library to talk about his journey from trouble-making teenager to motivational speaker. A book signing will follow this free event, open to all ages. Call the library at 330-343-6123 to register or for more information.

Attention seniors: Buy your Cedar Point ticket now and avoid being left behind. Tickets are $50, which includes your admission and all-day drink pass. See Mr. D'Egidio for your ticket.

This is a reminder to students who are applying for membership into National Honor Society: All forms are due tomorrow before 2pm. No late forms will be accepted.

Attention students: Applications to work at Tuscora Park are now available in the office.

Attention students: An ACT Prep session is being offered from 9am-noon this Sat., Feb. 24th. Please see Mr. Morris for information or call 330-866-9371, ext. 3120 to register.

Attention seniors: The William D. Squires Educational Foundation Scholarship is now available in the office – deadline is Apr. 5th and the Bernhard-Wentz Scholarship is available – deadline June 1st.

Are you interested in a high paying and challenging career in law or even just padding on your college resume with impressive academic accomplishments? If so, sign up for the new elective course called "The Judicial System at Work." See Mr. Bartholomew if you have questions.

We will be on advisory bell schedule tomorrow. Students, please remember that you will need to hand in your scheduling forms during homeroom... you and you parent must sign them, and your teachers need to have initialed your requests! You will also receive next Tuesday's assignments.

Now in Clubs & Activities:

Any students interested in helping backstage with The Addams Family should plan to attend a meeting tomorrow during clubs & activities in room 133. See Mr. Morris with questions.

And in Sports:

Anyone interested in trying out for DHS cheer or dance for the 2018-2019 school year should attend a mandatory tryout meeting tonight in the cafeteria. Cheer is at 6:30pm and dance is at 7:15pm. Parents are welcome to attend, but their attendance is not required.

Any students planning to join the track team this spring need to turn in their blue information form to Coach Smith in room 315 by tomorrow. Athletes must have updated physicals in order to participate in conditioning workouts. We will have conditioning days at Crater Stadium from 3-4:30pm on Tues., Feb. 27th, Thurs., Mar. 1st and Fri., Mar. 2nd. Make sure you can receive the Remind 101 messages. Please see Coach Smith if you have questions or need track forms.

These have been your morning announcements for Thursday, February 22, 2018. Have a great day!
