

Good Morning! I am _____, and these are your Morning Announcements for Tuesday, February 27, 2018

Now in School Business:

Don't forget to turn in your submissions for this year's edition of Tornado Alley, the Teen Literary Magazine of DHS and Dover Public Library. They're looking for art, poetry, creative nonfiction, and fiction submissions. Forms are available online, at the library, and in the DHS library. The submission deadline is tomorrow! Don't miss this opportunity to have your work published!

There will be a free movie and popcorn at Dover Public Library today at 3pm! No registration necessary. Contact the library for more information.

Attention seniors: Buy your Cedar Point ticket now and avoid being left behind. Tickets are $50, which includes your admission and all-day drink pass. See Mr. D'Egidio for your ticket.

Attention seniors: The following scholarships are now available in the office -

The William D. Squires Educational Foundation Scholarship – deadline Apr. 5th

The Bernhard-Wentz Scholarship – deadline June 1st

The College Club of Tuscarawas County Scholarship – deadline Mar. 9th

The Kevin Eckhardt Memorial Scholarship – deadline Apr. 20th

The Tom Armstrong Scholarship - deadline Apr. 6th

The Dover OAPSE #392 Scholarship – deadline Apr. 6th

Tomorrow is the last day to purchase a yearbook at the discounted price of $60. After Wed., the price of a yearbook will be $65. Order your yearbook today!

Summer school forms are now available in the office.

Now in Clubs & Activities:

Attention cast of The Addams Family: This is a reminder that the girls in "Secrets" need to be at rehearsal at 6pm tonight, and everyone else will need to be here by 6:30 to run all of Act I. Tomorrow, we will be running Act I OFFBOOK!

And in Sports:

Kaenel Krazies invite all DHS students to attend the boys' basketball tournament game tomorrow evening at 7pm. The theme is Mardi Gras!

Congratulations to wrestling district qualifiers: senior Mason Contini, junior Trent Miller, sophomore Miguel Itzep, and freshmen Mitchell Wallick and Doug Weaver. All of these wrestlers qualified to compete in the district tournament at North Canton HS on Fri. & Sat.

These have been your morning announcements for Tuesday, February 27, 2018. Have a great day!
