

Good Morning! I am _____, and these are your Morning Announcements for Thursday, February 8, 2018

Now in School Business:

Come celebrate Mardi Gras, Valentine's Day and Chinese New Year at Dover Public Library on Tues., Feb. 14th at 3pm. Play games, make crafts and enjoy refreshments at this fun event! No registration necessary.

Attention seniors: Buy your Cedar Point ticket now and avoid being left behind. Tickets are $50, which includes your admission and all-day drink pass. See Mr. D'Egidio for your ticket.

Balloon-a-grams are on sale now! Send a balloon with a written message to your friends or Valentine and they will be delivered to their lockers before Valentine's Day. The balloon-a-grams are $1 each. See a National Honor Society member, Mrs. Beadle or Ms. Hudson TODAY for more details or if you are interested in purchasing one.

Attention seniors: The Dover Education Foundation Scholarship and the Dover Education Foundation Brock Warden Memorial Scholarship are now available in the Guidance Office. The deadline for both of these scholarships is April 6th.

The Foundation for Appalachian Ohio Scholarship is now available, and the deadline is March 15th.

We will be on activity bell schedule tomorrow for clubs and activities. You must report to your homeroom first to pick up any honor roll and merit roll certificates and to sign out.

And in Sports:

Due to the snow day yesterday, the boys' tennis team meeting will be TODAY, Thurs., Feb. 8th, after school in room 319.

Tomorrow, the boys' basketball team plays New Phila at HOME. The theme is WHITE OUT, so come in all white. The first 200 students in the student section will get a FREE – yes, FREE – shirt! Continue the Golden Megaphone momentum, cheer for the team and get a FREE SHIRT! Go Dover! A Miller's Creamery gift card will be given to the most spirited students as well!

These have been your morning announcements for Thursday, February 8, 2018. Have a great day!
