Morning Announcements for Friday, February 9, 2018

Now in School Business:

Come celebrate Mardi Gras, Valentine's Day and Chinese New Year at Dover Public Library on Tues., Feb. 14th at 3pm. Play games, make crafts and enjoy refreshments at this fun event! No registration necessary.

Attention seniors: Buy your Cedar Point ticket now and avoid being left behind. Tickets are $50, which includes your admission and all-day drink pass. See Mr. D'Egidio for your ticket.

Attention seniors: The Dover Education Foundation Scholarship and the Dover Education Foundation Brock Warden Memorial Scholarship are now available in the Guidance Office. The deadline for both of these scholarships is April 6th.

The Foundation for Appalachian Ohio Scholarship is now available, and the deadline is March 15th.

We will be on activity bell schedule today for clubs and activities. You must report to your homeroom first to pick up any honor roll and merit roll certificates and to sign out.

Are you considering a career in the health/medical field or maybe you'd like to work as a student athletic trainer here at DHS? If so, then sign up for Health II – Introduction to Medical Professions (formerly called Introduction to Athletic Training). You will learn human anatomy, how to assess and prevent injuries, taping skills, and basic first aid and CPR. This is an advanced class, so you will need to pick up, complete your application, and get permission from Mrs. Zobel before being allowed to register. Completed applications are due on Wed., Feb. 21st, and then you will be notified and you will have to get Mrs. Zobel's signature before submitting your schedule for next year. Please see Mrs. Zobel with questions.

And in Sports:

Anyone who missed the boys' tennis meeting yesterday, please see Mr. Conrad in room 319 for important information about the upcoming season.

Tonight, the boys' basketball team plays New Phila at HOME. The theme is WHITE OUT, so come in all white. The first 200 students in the student section will get a FREE – yes, FREE – shirt! Continue the Golden Megaphone momentum, cheer for the team and get a FREE SHIRT! Go Dover! A Miller's Creamery gift card will be given to the most spirited students as well!

These have been your morning announcements for Friday, February 9, 2018. Have a great day and weekend!
