

Good Morning! I am _____, and these are your Morning Announcements for Thursday, March 22, 2018

Now in School Business:

Attention seniors: Buy your Cedar Point ticket now and avoid being left behind. Tickets are $50, which includes your admission and all-day drink pass. See Mr. D'Egidio for your ticket.

Attention seniors: The following scholarships are now available -

The Dr. Frank Caputo "Masonic Scholarship" – deadline May 1st

The Dover Lions Club Scholarship – deadline April 10th

The DEA Scholarship – deadline April 20th

The Tuscarawas County 4-H Scholarship for 4-H member only – deadline Aug. 7th

The Dover Mothers Club Scholarship – deadline April 23rd

Any student considering taking CCP courses next year, including our dual credit classes, needs to complete an intent form that is due April 1st. Since that falls over our spring break, you must turn it in by TOMORROW.

Driver's Education classes are available at the ESC in March and April... stop by the office for a flyer.

Calling all artists! The Dover Public Library is hosting an art studio on Tues., Mar. 27th at 3pm. Come learn about cubism and then experiment with the art style yourself. No registration is necessary. Call the library at 330-343-6123 for more information.

Attention students: Der Dutchman in Walnut Creek is hiring for various positions. Call 330-893-2981 to speak to a manager to schedule an interview.

Now in Clubs & Activities:

Join Youth 2 Youth! Y2Y meets on Tuesdays after school in room 206 and is a youth-led prevention group that focuses on educating students, parents, and the community on substance abuse prevention, mental health, and overall health & wellness. It is never too late to join, and we would love to have you be a part of our group.

Attention cast of The Addams Family: Rehearsal tonight is for everyone beginning at 6:30!

Any students interested in helping to build The Addams Family set: Come to the door by the side entrance of the stage in the faculty parking lot at 10am on Saturday.

These have been your morning announcements for Thursday, March 22, 2018. Have a great day!
