

Good Morning! I am _____, and these are your Morning Announcements for Thursday, April 5, 2018

Now in School Business:

Attention juniors and seniors: A representative from The University of Akron will be here at 9am on Wed., April 11th. Sign up in the office to hear this representative.

Attention seniors: Josten's will be here in the gym lobby during all lunch periods today to deliver caps and gowns. If you owe a balance, this must be paid online or by cash or certified check at pick up.

Driver's Education classes will be starting on April 8th at the Educational Service Center in New Philadelphia. If you have too much going on during the week, there are Sunday classes. For an informational flyer, please stop in the main office.

Attention seniors: The Tuscarawas County Literacy Coalition Scholarship is now available, and the deadline is April 21st. In addition, The WDNP 102.3 FM Scholarship is available, and the deadline is April 30th.

Attention seniors: Buy your Cedar Point ticket now and avoid being left behind. Tickets are $50, which includes your admission and all-day drink pass. See Mr. D'Egidio for your ticket.

Attention juniors and seniors: If you are planning to bring someone from another school to Prom, you must fill out an out of school guest application. These forms are now available in the office. All forms must be completed and returned by April 27th.

Any sophomore, junior, or senior students interested in taking the ASVAB Test in May here at DHS, please see Mr. Bender to sign up.

Anyone who wants to have their New York City trip pictures featured in the Crimsonian should send them to 20symonscalli@dovortornadoes.com. The pictures need to be sent by tomorrow.

Seniors: If you will be 18 on or before May 8th, you will be eligible to vote in the primary! Please stop in the main office for a voter registration form. It will need to be returned to Mrs. Lentz by tomorrow morning.

There will be groundbreaking ceremony for the new high school on May 17th at 6:30pm. Any student interested in being a class representative to take part in the commemorative photo of one of the first digs of the new building while wearing a t-shirt with his or her graduating year, see Mrs. Sondag in room 203 by April 13th. Any student interested must be certain that he or she will be able to attend the ceremony. One student from each class will be chosen at random. Even if you are not chosen, you will still have the opportunity for a photo of all students there.

We will be on activity bell schedule tomorrow for clubs & activities.

We will be on a 2-hour delay bell schedule on Mon. April 9th for staff professional development. The tardy bell will ring at 9:45am.

Now in Clubs & Activities:

Join Youth 2 Youth! Y2Y meets on Tuesdays after school in room 206.

Attention National Honor Society members: If you signed up to work at the Run for Home this Sunday, you need to report to the stadium by 10:30am. You will be given instructions and your t-shirt at that time. You should be finished before 2. Thanks for volunteering! In addition, please take care of your due by this Friday. They are $15 and are now past due!

Attention cast and crew of The Addams Family: Everyone needs to be here ready to go at 6:30 tonight! We will be running a full dress rehearsal.

And in Sports:

Congratulations to the DHS student section, the Kaenel Krazies, for being co-winners of the 2018 State Golden Megaphone Award. This award honors students who attend and cheer at boys' basketball games in positive, productive ways. Thank you to all the students who attended games, participated, and helped this year representing Dover in such a classy way!

These have been your morning announcements for Thursday, April 5, 2018. Have a great day!
